The Humble
A D D R E S S Of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal In PARLIAMENT Assembled.

Die Veneris 10 Aprilis, 1713.

HER MAJESTIES most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, Do, with the greatest Joy and Satisfaction, Return our humble Thanks to Your Majesty for Your most Gracious Speech from the Throne, and for Communicating to Your Parliament that a Peace is Concluded; by which we hope, with the Blessing of God, that Your People will, in few Years, Recover themselves after so Long and Expensive a War; And also do Congratulate Your Majesty upon the Success of Your Endeavours for a General Peace.

We never had the least Doubt, but that Your Majesty, who is the great Support and Ornament of the Protestant Religion, would Continue to take, as You have always done, the Wiseſt Measures for Securing the Proteſtant Succeſſion, towards which nothing can be more Neceſſary than the perfect Friendſhip there is between Your Maſteſty and the Houſe of Hanover.

And we do humbly Aſſure Your Maſteſty, That as You Expres Your Dependence, next under God, upon the Duty and Affection of Your People, we think our ſelves Bound by the ſtriſteſt Tyes of Religion, Loyalty, and Gratitude, to make all the Dutiful Returns that can be paid, by the moſt Obedient Subjects to the moſt Indulgent Sovereign.

Her MAJESTIES moſt Gracious Answer.

My LORDS,

I Do moſt heartily Thank you for this Address; and be Aſſured, That I take a particular Satisfaction, that you ſo Kindly Expres the Confidence you have in Me.

Throne, and for Communicating to Your Parliament that a Peace is Concluded; by which we hope, with the Bleſſing of God, that Your People will, in few Years, Recover themſelves after ſo Long and Expensive a War; And alſo do Congratulate Your Maſteſty upon the Succeſs of Your Endeavours for a General Peace.
